20.4 The termination of the Agreement shall not affect the rights or liabilities of any party against the other to the date of such termination.

20.5 The outstanding balance on the Account shall immediately become due and payable on the termination of the Agreement, and the Account Holder shall promptly return all Cards to BFC.

20.6 All parties acknowledge that any provisions of the Agreement which, expressly or by implication, are intended to survive termination which shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the termination of the Agreement.

21 AUSTRALIAN CONSUMER LAW

21.1 The Cards are a product intended to be used for business purposes and not for personal, domestic or household use. The parties acknowledge and agree that the goods and services supplied by BFC to the Account Holder or any Card User, and the Authorised Supplies acquired by the Account Holder or a Card User are all “supplied and acquired in trade”.

21.2 If any consumer guarantee given under the Australian Consumer Law as set out in Part 3-2 of Schedule 2 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) cannot be excluded in respect of goods or services not of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal domestic or household use or consumption, and subject to the qualifications contained in Section 64A of the Australian Consumer Law, BFC's liability for breach of that consumer guarantee will be limited to one of the following as reasonably determined by us:

- (a) in the case of goods:
 - (i) the replacement of goods or the supply of equivalent goods;
 - (ii) the repair of goods;
 - (iii) payment of the cost of replacing the goods or of acquiring equivalent goods; or
 - (iv) the payment of the cost of having the goods repaired; or
- (b) in the case of services:
 - (i) the supplying of the services again; or
 - (ii) the payment of costs of having the services supplied again.

21.3 Liability for breach of any condition or warranty implied by any other applicable law is limited to one of the limits as determined by BFC and set out in 21.2(a) and 21.2(b) above.

22 RESALE RESTRICTION

Unless and except to the extent otherwise agreed between BFC and the Account Holder in writing, the Account Holder must not:

- (a) promote, resell, or pass on the use or any pricing benefit of BFC to the Account Holder's related entities or any third parties; and/or
- (b) represent or otherwise imply that the Account Holder is a reseller or promoter of BFC's or any BFC services or that the Account Holder is otherwise entitled to pass on any pricing benefit of BFC to the Account Holder's related entities or any third party.

23 ACCOUNT HOLDER IS LIABLE FOR ALL CHARGES

The Account Holder acknowledges and agrees that it is liable for all purchases made with, or Charges incurred by, the use of, a Card issued to the Account Holder and, subsequently, a Card User, except to the extent that the liability is caused by BFC's fraud, negligence or wilful misconduct (including that of BFC's officers, employees, contractors or agents).

24 FORCE MAJEURE

BFC shall be under no liability to the Account Holder for failure to perform its obligations outlined in the Agreement if such failure is due to conditions beyond the reasonable control of BFC, its agents, subcontractors, or employees.

25 WAIVER

A failure to exercise, a delay in exercising, or a partial exercise of a right created under or arising from a breach of the Agreement or on the occurrence of a termination event does not result in a waiver of that right.

26 ASSIGNMENT

- 26.1 BFC may, without the consent of the Account Holder by notice to the Account Holder, assign, transfer, subcontract, or otherwise deal with all or any part of its rights or obligations under the Agreement to any person or between its related entities.
- 26.2 The Account Holder may not assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under the Agreement without the consent, in writing, of BFC, which will not be unreasonably withheld. Any change in the effective management or control of the Account Holder shall be deemed to be an assignment for the purposes of this clause 26.2.
- 26.3 If the Account Holder assigns its rights under the Agreement, and BFC either inadvertently or otherwise makes a payment in respect of any changes to the assignor instead of the assignee or vice versa, any dispute concerning entitlement to the receipt of such payment shall be settled directly between the assignor and the assignee without recourse to BFC.

27 NOTICES

- 27.1 All communications between the parties shall be given in legible writing in English and be deemed to have been given by the sender and received by the addressee:
- (a) if delivered in person, when delivered to the addressee;
 - (b) if posted, seven (7) Business Days from and including the date of posting to the addressee, provided that the notice is addressed to the last known business address of the other party;
 - (c) if emailed, on the next Business Day after the day on which notice is sent to the last known electronic address of the other party.
- 27.2 The Account Holder must notify BFC of any change to its name, registered office or principal place of business, address details (including address details associated with any Card), or of any change in its directors or officers as soon as possible upon a change being effected.
- 27.3 The Account Holder acknowledges and agrees that it is responsible for all expenses and/or fees incurred in relation to its use of the Cards where BFC has relied on information provided by the Account Holder, and the Account Holder has not notified BFC that such information is incorrect, out-of-date, needs to be updated, or needs to be changed. BFC is not liable to the Account Holder for any loss suffered where this occurs, except to the extent that the liability is caused by BFC's fraud, negligence or wilful misconduct (including that of BFC's officers, employees, contractors or agents).

28 GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

These Terms and Conditions (and the Agreement) are governed by the laws of Victoria. Each party irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Victoria.

29 UNENFORCEABLE PROVISIONS

A provision of, or the application of a provision of, the Agreement which is void, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction does not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction or of the remaining provisions in that or any other jurisdiction. Where a clause in the Agreement is void, illegal or unenforceable, it may be severed without affecting the enforceability of the other provisions in the Agreement.

30 FURTHER ASSURANCES

The Account Holder will, and will procure that each Card User will, when requested by BFC, promptly do, sign and deliver everything reasonably required to give full effect to these terms and conditions and the transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

31 SPECIAL CONDITIONS

Special Conditions (if any) are part of and incorporated into the Agreement. If there is any inconsistency between these terms and conditions and the Special Conditions, the Special Conditions will prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

32 GST

- (a) Any reference in this clause 32 to a term defined or used in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth), including any successor or functionally equivalent replacement of such law, is, unless the context indicates otherwise, a reference to that term as defined or used in that Act.

- (b) Unless expressly included, the consideration for any supply made under or in connection with the Agreement does not include an amount on account of GST payable or notionally payable in respect of the supply (being “GST Exclusive Consideration”) except as provided under this clause 32.
- (c) Any amount referred to in the Agreement (other than an amount referred to in clause 32(h)) which is relevant in determining a payment to be made by one of the parties to the other is, unless indicated otherwise, a reference to that amount expressed on a GST exclusive basis.
- (d) To the extent that GST is payable in respect of any supply made by a party (“First Party”) under or in connection with the Agreement, the consideration to be provided by the other party (the “Second Party”) under the Agreement for that supply (unless it is expressly stated to include GST) is increased by an amount equal to the GST Exclusive Consideration (or its GST exclusive market value if applicable) multiplied by the rate at which GST is imposed in respect of the supply.
- (e) The Second Party must pay the additional amount payable under clause 32(d) to the First Party at the same time as the GST Exclusive Consideration is otherwise required to be provided.
- (f) The First Party must issue a tax invoice to the Second Party of the taxable supply at or before the time of payment of the consideration for the supply as increased on account of GST under clause 32(d) or at such other time as the parties agree.
- (g) Whenever an adjustment event occurs in relation to any taxable supply made under or in connection with the Agreement, the First Party must determine the net GST in relation to the supply (taking into account any adjustment), and if the net GST differs from the amount previously paid under clause 32(e), the amount of the difference must be paid by, refunded to or credited to the Second Party, as applicable. The entitlement to be paid, refunded, or credited the amount of the difference is subject to the First Party issuing an adjustment note to the Second Party.
- (h) If one of the parties to the Agreement is entitled to be reimbursed or indemnified for a Loss incurred in connection with the Agreement, then the amount of the reimbursement or indemnity payment must first be reduced by an amount equal to any input tax credit to which the party being reimbursed or indemnified (or its representative member) is entitled in relation to that Loss and then, if the amount of the payment is consideration or part consideration for a taxable supply, it must be increased on account of GST in accordance with clause 32(d).
